

Drugs and the law quiz

Discuss in pairs whether the statements below are TRUE or FALSE. Circle the appropriate answer.

1. It is illegal to use steroids. True or False
2. It is illegal to sell poppers (liquid gold) to someone under 16 years old. True or False
3. It is illegal for two 14-year-olds to go into a pub without an adult. True or False
4. It is illegal to pick magic mushrooms and take them home to dry out. True or False
5. It is illegal to use a syringe. True or False
6. Cocaine cannot be prescribed by a doctor. True or False
7. The penalties for possession of cannabis vary from area to area. True or False
8. If your parents allow you to grow cannabis plants in their greenhouse, they could be prosecuted. True or False
9. If you go clubbing with two of your mates and you buy them ecstasy tablets, you can be prosecuted for supplying drugs. True or False
10. It is illegal for you to offer to get some cannabis for a friend (even if you don't eventually manage to get any). True or False
11. LSD is a class-A drug (i.e. has the toughest penalties). True or False
12. It is illegal for you to sniff aerosol in the street. True or False
13. Heroin can be given by prescription. True or False
14. The main law controlling drug use in the UK is called the Illegal Substances Act. True or False

Photocopiable:

Developing Emotional Literacy with Teenagers, 2nd edition © Tina Rae, 2013 (SAGE)